The Summit will allow wisdom sharing and strategy development to support our collective efforts to ensure Michigan has a qualified nursing workforce to meet the current and future healthcare needs of Michigan.

This year's Summit, Joining Forces for Change will address emerging and timely issues in nursing. You will hear from acknowledged leaders and emerging experts who will encourage us to "join forces and think outside the box". We hope to provide you with tools to work smarter and encouragement to make a difference and face the challenges during these difficult economic times.
