

Achieving Health Equity Through Growth, Innovation, and Reflection

October 22, 2021 • Virtual Event

Achieving Health Equity Through Growth, Innovation, and Reflection is an event planned to convene nurses nationwide. This event will explore how nurses can harness the momentum of personal growth to affect systemic change.

We hope you'll join us for this virtual event, which will feature six speakers who will help to promote understanding in a number of topics relating to health equity.

Key Learnings

1. Learn about the goals of the nursing profession with respect to health equity.
2. Learn how to apply your knowledge to positively impact health disparities.
3. Learn about impacting marginalized communities, engaging underserved populations, and improving health literacy, while identifying ways to integrate these learnings into practice.
